

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope you enjoyed the extended weekend with your children, with having Friday 25th as a teacher training day. Can I please remind you that our final teacher training day of this term will be on Friday 9th December when the school will be closed. I appreciate there have been extra dates this term – we do try very hard to attach our training days to the beginnings and ends of terms but unfortunately this is not always possible. Thank you for your support with this.

Please note that from Monday 5th December it is assessment week in the school. Please ensure that your child attends school, is on time and is well rested so that they can do there absolute best in their tests. As mentioned previously last week, your child’s attainment and progress will be shared with you via a report that will be sent home at the end of this term.

The weather has turned decidedly colder and wintery. Please ensure your child has a coat (in plain black, navy blue, grey or red – no other colours or patterns please) and that all coats and accessories (such as gloves, hats and scarves) are clearly marked with their names.

Finally, tomorrow (Wednesday 30th November) is our “Go Green for Buddy Day” led by the NSPCC. Children are encouraged to wear something green to school in return for a donation towards the charity (we recommend £1). There will be a series of lessons throughout the day and please remember that you are warmly invited to the Parent Workshop, which takes place in the hall at 2.30pm. We look forward to seeing you there.

Have a super week

Ian Doswell
